Format Your Brief in Minutes – Not Hours. The Appellate Brief Template is a highly customizable formatted brief for Microsoft Word. It allows you to spend your time writing your brief instead of wasting hours trying to format it. A case brief is a shortened, concise summary of a court opinion, usually in outline form. Hence the term “brief.” Typically this is used for more effective self-study. Appellate Defenders, Inc., is a non-profit law firm which administers the appointed counsel system for the California Court of Appeal, Fourth Appellate District, in California. The office operates under a contract with the California Administrative Office of the Courts. A brief (Old French from Latin "brevis", short) is a written legal document used in various legal adversarial systems that is presented to a court arguing why one party to a particular case should prevail.
