Read 12 reviews from the world's largest community for readers. Voices & Visions continues to produce new series and is focused on providing educators a space to share their programs with others. Many of the programs are now available in The Exchange on our website. Written entirely by teens, TeenInk uniquely captures the essence of what it means to be a teenager. This collection of prose and poetry represents the honest, forthright and compelling moments that define their lives. Pieces for this book were chosen from a base of more than 300,000.
