

Download Peterson Field Guide To Birds Of New Jersey Roger Tory Peterson

Raptor Attention Story and Photos by Richard Wilson. As autumn progresses, local residents and visitors to the Northwest New Jersey Skylands gather to watch the raptor migrations as they fly along the thermals created along the path of the world's oldest mountain range - the Appalachian Mountains. New Jersey Audubon's Eco-Travel Program has taken participants around the world for over 30 years. NJ Audubon staff design natural history and birding trips to a variety of domestic and foreign destination sites, ranging from relaxed nature getaways to relatively intensive birding adventures. Raptor Migration. Roger Tory Peterson said it best: "On any clear cold weekend in October, tens of thousands of men, women and youngsters gaze skyward from the rocky ridges across the land, and from strategic spots along the coast and the Great Lakes. The New River Valley Bird Club is excited to invite you to the 2019 annual meeting, May 3-5, 2019, at Mountain Lake, Virginia. Mountain Lake has been recognized for many years as a unique ecosystem for birds.