Instead of having them build words (which I've done that with classes previously), I have them build the first word. Then one student records it on our board, while I'm monitoring the other students. After reading the story today, I thought that I could make this into a little reading assessment as well. Tomorrow, we will reread our story, and complete one of the activities below. This week we are studying pets in 2nd grade and I wanted to light my "littles" love of writing as well!! Tomorrow we are doing a whole group writing activity because my kids are all over the place in abilities.
